

“Active Citizenship and Environmental Awareness through Formal and Non-formal Education”
Meeting in ITALY 03/04/2017 – 07/04/2017

SUNDAY 02/04/2017
Arrival of all countries
MONDAY 03/04/2017
TIME	TEACHERS	TIME	STUDENTS
09.30-17.00	Molo S. Eligio: Welcome meeting of all countries on board of the catamaran Jonian Dolphin Conservation together with the experts of the scientific research association for the study of cetaceans in the Gulf of Taranto. A journey, in search of dolphins with marine biology experts.	09.30-17.00	Molo S. Eligio Welcome meeting of all countries on board of the catamaran Jonian Dolphin Conservation together with the experts of the scientific research association for the study of cetaceans in the Gulf of Taranto. A journey, in search of dolphins with marine biology experts.
TUESDAY 04/02/2017
09.00-11.00	Welcome meeting at school	09.00-11.00	Welcome meeting at school
11.00-11.30	Guided tour of the school	11.00-11.30	Guided tour of the school
11.30-13.00	Presentation of student projects of each country	11.30-13.00	Presentation of student projects of each country
15.00-17.00	Analysis and Evaluation of students projects	15.00-17.00	Analysis and Evaluation of students projects
WEDNESDAY 05/03/2017
09.00 - 17.00	Trip to Valle d’Itria “Alberobello” and “Martina Franca”. A surprising landscape that stretches for 1100 hectares with a variety of habitats: from the beautiful beach to the expansive farms with centuries-old olive trees. Through the centuries, rural communities	09.00 – 17.00	Trip to Valle d’Itria “Alberobello” and “Martina Franca”. A surprising landscape that stretches for 1100 hectares with a variety of habitats: from the beautiful beach to the expansive farms with centuries-old olive trees. Through the centuries, rural communities have managed their environment and farmed the land in their own natural way, creating a rich diversity of landscapes. A model of sustainable development.		have managed their environment and farmed the land in their own natural way, creating a rich diversity of landscapes. A model of sustainable development.

THURSDAY 06/03/2017
09.00 – 10.00	Welcome meeting by the Mayor of Taranto	09.00 – 10.00	Welcome meeting by the Mayor of Taranto
10.00 – 16.00	Trip to the WWF Oasis “ Palude e la vela ” with bird watching. This Oasis is a treasure for the natural heritage of the city of Taranto. Rich flora mainly halophyte vegetation and even more rich and interesting fauna is characterized by sedentary species and migration	10.00 – 16.00	Trip to the WWF Oasis “ Palude e la vela ” with bird watching. This Oasis is a treasure for the natural heritage of the city of Taranto. Rich flora mainly halophyte vegetation and even more rich and interesting fauna is characterized by sedentary species and migration
FRIDAY 07/03/2017
09.00 – 12.30	Guest students and teachers divided in groups will attend: - Chemical workshop (production of scented chinks) - Art workshop (creation of bookmarks with slogans on environment in different languages); - Audiovisual workshop (creation of spots in different languages for environmental protection)	09.00 – 12.30	Guest students and teachers divided in groups will attend: - Chemical workshop (production of scented chinks) - Art workshop (creation of bookmarks with slogans on environment in different languages); - Audiovisual workshop (creation of spots in different languages for environmental protection)
12.30-13.30	Evaluation of the activities in Italy	12.30-13.30	Evaluation of the activities in Italy
14.30	Free time	14.30	Free time
SATURDAY 08/03/2017
Departure of all the countries			