

Erasmus+

Official programme for pupils
Active Citizenship and Environmental Awareness
Through Formal and Non-formal Education

14/3 Monday	9:30  11:00 13:15-15:30	Welcome Assembly in Hall with students and teachers from NA and EE and the pupils from English 7 course. Room 342. Tour of the School &amp; Observations of Lessons guided by Henrik. Depart for Visit to SCA. Guided tour of SCA (Swedish Forest product company and sustainable production of paper pulp). The Vice President of Communication, Mr. Björn Lyngfelt will present the importance of sustainable production of paper pulp and paper and the impact of an unsustainable society on the environment. The guests will then be given a guided tour around the plant and get a chance to see the whole process of producing paper that is from making pulp from wood to paper ready for transport.
15/3 Tuesday	8:30-11:35   13:00-15:30  15:45-19:00	Logo designing /Class-room visits - the guest students together will participate in a logo-designing competition. After a short break, the students will participate in a few lessons such as General English, English poetry writing, Chemistry, Mathematics, Sustainable Building and Construction and Green-Energy. Workshop on recycle and ecology, a chance to build a fantasy animal from recycle material. The idea is to build the animal while having the animal's natural habitat in mind. Information on a sustainable and low energy consuming adventure swimming pool by Peter Johansson, Sundsvalls county council. Peter will talk about the sustainable and low energy consumption of the pool. He will inform about the importance of a shower before jumping into the pool, the energy consumption of pool's cleaning system can be reduced if chemicals from people are washed off before entering the pool.
16/3 Wednesday	9:00-12:00   12:00-16:00	Human Rights – a workshop. The students will work with different HR topics such as health, education, hunger and food, economic growth, inequality, water and sanitation, etc. The idea of the student's workshop is to find something related to the topic they will be given and try to take a picture of it. Visit to Bergforsen, Hydro power plant, where Mr. Kaj Englund (from Vattenfall AB) will talk about the importance of Green energy. Later a guided tour around the Hydro-power plant. The northern part of Sweden is dependent on the Hydro-power plant for its electrical energy.

17/3 Thursday	8:30-11:15  12:00-15:30	Presentation of Environmental project, guest students present their topics on sustainable development and energy consumption for a sustainable living  Depart for Sidsjö for an afternoon out in the Swedish nature. Naturskola KOMUT: try out the snow-shoes /ride sledges or even ski downhill or cross- country / ice fishing / making camp-fire twists/ cooking hot-dog / hot chocolate on a camp-fire out in the Swedish nature.
18/3 Friday	8:30-9:40  10:00  13:00-14:00	Guest pupils present their topics on sustainable development and energy consumption for a sustainable living.  Visit to “The cube”. Speech by Joao Pinheiro, Sundsvall county council department of Education. The Cube, a symbol for human rights, will be inaugurate, where the thoughts and expressions of the students on human rights activities and the mass immigration of Syrian refugees will be exhibited.  Observations of formal and non-formal teaching.